

Hon. Elizabeth M. Rochford was appointed as Associate Judge of the Nineteenth Judicial Circuit, Lake County (Waukegan) in December 27, 2012, and currently sits in Probate Court. In response to the Illinois Supreme Court mandate to provide Access to Justice, a family law courtroom dedicated to Self Represented Litigants (SRLs) was established in Lake County in November, 2018. Judge Rochford was involved in the development, and was the first judge to sit in the (SRL) courtroom. She remains deeply committed to issues related to providing access to justice, and serves on several related AOIC committees.

Prior to her judicial appointment, Judge Rochford served as Assistant State's Attorney (1986-1989); solo practitioner, trusts and estates, and real estate (1989-2012); Commissioner of the Court of Claims (1990-2012); Administrative Law Hearing Officer for municipalities including Lincolnwood, Skokie, Morton Grove and Glenview (2005-2012).

Judge Rochford earned her B.A. in English from Loyola University of Chicago and her J.D. from Loyola University School of Law, Chicago.

ISBA activities include Board of Governors (2013-2019) and Secretary 2019; member of numerous ISBA committees and section councils, including Women and the Law, Bench and Bar, and Mental Health; she also served on the Task Force on Lawyers Feeding Illinois, and was Chair of the LFI kick-off at the 2012 Mid-Year Meeting. She is currently serving on the Trusts and Estates Committee.

Lake County Bar Association leadership positions include: President (2010-2011); chair, Community Outreach Committee; chair Trusts and Estates Committee (2005-2008); and chair, Real Estate Committee (2005-2007).

She served as the President of the Illinois Judges Foundation (IJF) from 2015-2016 and continued to serve on the IJF board until 2020.

She serves on the Illinois Judges Association (IJA) Board of Directors since 2015, and is currently Secretary. Judge Rochford is a co-editor of the IJA's publication, "The Gavel" and serves as co-chair of the "Paging It Forward" literacy initiative. She is the 2021 Chair of the IJA initiative "Building Confidence in the Legal System" an educational series for judges, attorneys, and other stakeholders, with focus on racial and other inequities in the legal system.
